Thought for the week

Out of the ashes

The Methodist Centenary congregation arrived to a devastating scene at our worship on St Stephen's Green on the Sunday morning before Christmas 1968. The building had been destroyed by an arsonist. Only the shell was left. The interior was open to the skies. It took some time to gather thoughts and to prayerfully consider the path ahead, but with great foresight, when the Leeson Park site was purchased, it was decided to include student accommodation. Nearly 60 years later we can see what a wise decision that was. Generations of young people have benefited from good accommodation in an excellent location. Their presence has enhanced the sense of community in Wesley House. Some have made the congregation their chosen place of worship.

Our present group of students will lead us in worship this Sunday at 10.30am. Finton Lalor will again bring the address as he helps us grapple with the lectionary readings that focus on the temptation of Christ (Matthew 4:1-11).

Max Lucado suggests the following steps be taken before coming to worship. 'Pray before you come so that you will be ready to pray when you arrive. Sleep before you come so that you will be alert when you arrive. Read the Word before you come so that your heart will be soft when you worship. Come hungry. Come willing. Come expecting God to speak.'

King David had a good definition of worship. 'Oh magnify the LORD with me, let us exalt his Name together'. As we draw nearer, God seems larger. Isn't that what we need? A big view of God? Don't we have big problems, big worries, big questions? Of course we do. Hence we need a big view of God.

Prayer

Lord, enlarge our vision of you, soften our hearts and increase our expectancy that we might truly worship along with the student body this Sunday. We pray for each student and we thank you for them O Lord, Amen.

Safeguarding training and Garda vetting for youth work

Room 1, Wesley House Tuesday 31st March, 7-9.15pm with Nicky Blair, Connexional Safeguarding Officer

We have accepted a generous offer of an Exodus Team (4 adult leaders and approximately 8 young people) who will lead a summer scheme with us from the 12th – 19th July 2026. We are asking that all involved in youth work within the congregation attend the training, even if you have done the course before. It is a requirement that it is refreshed every three years. Come early to fill in your Garda vetting forms. The Exodus Week will involve the whole Circuit. Please speak to Andrew if you are willing to help with any aspect of the programme, be that involvement in activities, or the dropping off of meals to Wesley House for our guests. They will be living in our student accommodation for the week.

Church Walk

10.30am, Sat. 21st March

This may seem foolhardy. Valentia in Co. Kerry has had rain for 46 consecutive days. Still, this walk led by Eric Rankin looks lovely. Meet at Wesley House for a 5k loop walk from Ballymore Eustace through woods by the Liffey, Poulaphouca Reservoir and Blessington lakes. We will invite our friends from Leeson Lodge etc.

'Compelled' - A Daily Devotional for Lent:

'For the love of Christ compels us.' – 2 Corinthians 5:14

Dear All,

Lent is a season for thought and reflection as we journey towards Easter; a time when we can examine ourselves and invite God to bring transformation afresh to our lives.

This Lent, we are inviting everyone to join us daily on a 46-day journey (Wednesday 18 February – Sunday 5 April, 2026). In the Scripture passages and reflections prepared, we want to explore the nature of Jesus and how he transformed the lives of all those he encountered; taking to heart the challenge of how we are to live well for Christ in this world.

To aid us, we've invited voices and thoughts from people across our Connexion and beyond to dwell in the Gospel stories of Jesus.

A pdf of the booklet is available – this can be printed out or used on your digital device, whichever you find more accessible.

As an alternative, but with the same content, a daily audio podcast will also be available (through our 'Living Wholeheartedly' Podcast channel) – Listen out for some familiar voices!

For full details visit: irishmethodist.org/lent

As we dwell on these passages throughout Lent, our prayer is that we might become even more engrossed by the person and love of Christ, that it compels us to share him with others, and invites them, and us, into a deeper and richer relationship with God.

Connect? Yes – the purpose of the Thursday morning gathering is to meet and connect with others who come to Ireland from all sorts of places, for all sorts of reasons. We chat, in English, over a cup of tea or coffee, with the facilitators taking it in turn to lead the conversation.

We never know who might come and, over the last ten years, people have come from countries on all the continents, except maybe Australia. It has been a privilege to meet everyone.

We gather on Thursday mornings in Room 1 between 10.30 and 12noon. If you might be interested in joining the facilitation team, please speak to one of us – Charles, Lesley, Liz, Lynne, Maureen, Roy and Sayjin.
